

Nonprofit welcomes new board member

Community volunteer and fundraiser Fran Tognazzini has joined the board of directors at Jack's Helping Hand Inc., a local nonprofit organization serving children with special needs.

A resident of the North County for more than 30 years, Tognazzini has worked as a staff accountant with the firm of Roy & Connor, CPAs for 23 years and is currently treasurer for the San Luis Obispo County Cattle Women's Association.

Now in its fourth year of service, Jack's Helping Hand, Inc. is currently helping to establish a community park capable of serving children with special needs. For details contact 547-1914.

— Julia Hickey